PARTNERING WITH THE UCI LIBRARIES

The Partners of the UCI Libraries are a generous group of people who truly value the connection between information and the intellectual life of the UCI community.

Support from our Partners ensure that the UCI Libraries advances transformative research, teaching, scholarship and high quality patient care at UCI. We accomplish this by embedding experts and resources where knowledge is created, stored and shared.

Furthermore, the UCI Libraries fulfills the lifelong learning needs of the community, through public programs which extend our services and collections beyond the campus.

Through their annual membership gifts, Partners help the Libraries:

- Acquire highly sought-after books and leading academic journals
- Provide access to exceptional digital services and materials
- Develop innovative reference and instruction tools and workshops
- Renovate study and collaborative learning environments
- Offer intellectually-rich public programs that unite the campus and community

UCI Libraries' facilities encompasses 350,000 square feet in four locations:

- Jack Langson Library
- Francisco J. Ayala Science Library
- Forest J. Grunigen Medical Library
- Libraries Gateway Study Center

On an annual basis the UCI Libraries':

- Receive over 1.7 million physical visits and 6.7 million website virtual hits
- Manage 3.6+ million electronic and print volumes
- Field 25,000 reference questions and provide instruction to more than 17,000 individuals
- Provide more than 570 public access computers and a Multimedia Resource Center

A partnership with the UCI Libraries sustains a Gateway To Knowledge for generations to come. Please refer to the enclosed giving levels and become a Library Partner today!
